Joinery crafted to your exact specifications

Our experience of completing complex, high quality joinery for all kinds of commercial environments means you can rest easy knowing your important project is in safe hands from day one.

Our team of joinery experts will help you navigate the practical issues involved in the design, prototyping, manufacturing and installation process.

How We Work

Our work practices as a support partner on your project are based on the ethos of attention-to-detail and a commitment to working the right way.

Should you require other construction support services these are available via the Total Design Group from CAT A and CAT B fitouts and refurbishments, electrical and lighting to retail shelving.

Our Guarantee

Total Design Joinery brings together the most skilled craftsmen, who are experienced in completing complex, high quality joinery, for all kinds of commercial environments.

This means you can rest easy knowing the experienced Total Design Joinery team will work alongside you to convert your designs into innovative bespoke joinery products that fit, and enhance, your requirements. That's our guarantee.

TURN YOUR DESIGN
INTO REALITY

Getting every detail just right

Made to your specifications

Stand out from the crowd with completely unique hand-crafted joinery, designed and built by our expert joiners.

We can build you anything and our focus is high quality innovative solutions that look great and, just as importantly, work for your business.

Quality Craftsmanship

All our work undertaken is produced using the highest quality craftsmanship. Attention to detail, combined with traditional joinery methods, result in outstanding finished products.

Our bench joiners & cabinet makers are experts and benefit from working in our fully equipped specialist workshop in Hampshire.

Traditional & Modern

Our team is highly skilled in the traditional woodworking techniques it takes years to master, but we also have the ability to combine those long-established skills with modern approaches in order to achieve high levels of performance and style.

We have over 30 years' experience in creating bespoke joinery.

Retail

No two projects are the same so our experience in the retail sector means that our clients trust us to understand and deliver even the most complex joinery requirements, from small one-off designs to larger rollouts.

Commercial

Having worked collaboratively with designers, shopfitters, architects and contractors across a range of commercial sectors means we understand the demands of client projects, from cost through to timescales.

Leisure

Over the past 20 years, we have developed a reputation as leading bespoke joinery experts in the leisure & hospitality sector. Creating beautiful handcrafted furniture that will fit and function perfectly is our speciality.
